TheraMitta Story Board

As a visitor of the site, I view and search all groups on the site base on location without having to sign up.

As a visitor of the site, I can view individual group public information.

As a member of the site when I log on to TheraMitta, I want to see all the groups I belong to and the coming up events in those groups.

As a member of the site, I can request to join any group on the site.

As a administrator of a group, when I login I want to see a list of members request and have the option to refuse.

As a administrator of a group, I can specificy the privacy of the group.

As a member of a group when I view the group page I want to see all the blogposts but comments would show up only when I click on it.

As a member of a group when I click on the menu bar, I want to see the individual page show up in place of the group blog.

As a member of a group when I click on the blog menu, it should allow me to post accordingly.

As a member of a group I can view group calendar, upcoming events, past events.

As a adminstrator of the site, when I login I am able to see list of members and their information.

As a adminstrator of the site, I am able to delete individual and group from site.
